Brock Loses To Speedy Aggravation.

O'Donnell, Enlisted Man of Sixtl Artillery, Said To Have Dropped $1000.

There were to be found last Satur day morning those skeptical as to Aggravation's ability to run three-eighths of a mile. These unbelievers had their doubts summarily dispelled when later in the day Hollinger's good Brutus mare won from the much-lauded Brock in a common gallop timed :38. The race was for $250 a side and "Soldier" O'Donnel, an enlisted man of the Sixth Artillery and known as the Camp McKinley plunger, was backing the sorrel gelding. He owns a half interest in the horse as a matter of fact p.m. p.m The local sporting fraternity gathered 2:08 at Kapiolani Park to see the race and 2:50 it looked as if every man from the barracks had migrated to the grand stand 4:52 to see the camp horse run. For quite 5:26 a time no money changed hands, but as soon as the horses were taken on the track a startling change ensued. O'Donnel produced a bag of gold and with the utmost coolness proceeded to bet everybody to a standstill; he did not look for odds, even money was good enough for him. He is reported to have wagered $1,000 on his horse's chances and this amount would not appear to be many hundreds of dollars overestimated. O'Donnel's confidence became infectious and whereas Brock had no friends half an hour before post Hawalian Sugar, $40; 50 McBryde, paid time, there was quite a rush to get on up, $14; 46 Olaa, assessable, $4.12%. him before the starter's flag fell.

Brock appeared to be a bit off color, sweated profusely and acted crazily in his stall. This is fevel, and for standard gravity of Lat. 45. the more remarkable, for he is as a rule a cold-blooded animal.

G. S. McKenzie officiated as starter. The judges were Messrs. McDonald and Edgar Halstead. Opiopio rode Aggravation and Domingo Ferreira piloted Brock. The horses carried weight for age, 119 pounds.

Tom Hollinger led his mare onto the track and appeared very confident; his jockey wore the well known stable colors, green jacket with gold horseshoe on back and gold sleeves.
